DEAN, COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, CHICAGO

Action: Approve Dean, College of Business Administration, Chicago

Funding: State Appropriated Funds

The Chancellor at Chicago recommends the appointment of Stefanie A. Lenway, currently General Mills Professor of Strategic Management and Associate Dean, MBA Programs, Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota, as Dean, College of Business Administration, non-tenured, on a twelve-month service basis, on 100 percent time, at an annual salary of $195,500 (equivalent to an annual nine-month base salary of $160,000 plus two-ninths annualization of $35,500) and an administrative increment of $59,500, beginning August 16, 2005, for a total annual salary of $255,000.

Dr. Lenway will be appointed to the rank of Professor of Managerial Studies, College of Business Administration, on indefinite tenure, on an academic year service basis, on zero percent time, non-salaried, beginning August 16, 2005.

Dr. Lenway will replace John F. McDonald, who has served as Interim Dean of the College of Business Administration since July 2004 when he replaced Marinus W. Wiewel, who retired.

This recommendation is made with the advice of a search committee.¹

The Vice President for Academic Affairs concurs.

The President of the University recommends approval.
