DESIGNATE DOUGLAS HALL NAMINGS, COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, CHICAGO

Action: Approve Namings within Douglas Hall in the College of Business Administration, Chicago

Funding: No New Funding Required

In January 2009, the Board approved the renovation of Douglas Hall, College of Business Administration (CBA), located at 705 South Morgan Street with a budget of $16,256,300. The purpose of the renovation is to create state-of-the-art classrooms and on-campus administrative space for the College. In addition, it will bolster the CBA community by providing a place for its stakeholders to gather; increase the visibility of the College among business leaders in Chicago; help advance the College’s mission; and further establish its preeminence in entrepreneurship and innovation. Selection of The Architects Enterprise, Ltd., of Chicago, for professional services was approved by the Board at its May 21, 2009, meeting. The Chancellor at Chicago now recommends the following donor recognition namings within Douglas Hall.

- The Lorenz Family Idea Center, in recognition of Anthony G. Lorenz’s $25,000 gift to name a breakout room on the southeast side of the second floor. It will provide breakout space for groups of two to five students. Mr. Lorenz, president and CEO of ProActive, Inc., has been a member of the CBA’s Business Advisory Council (BAC) since 2003 and heads their marketing committee.
His company is a strategic communications and events agency headquartered in Chicago with offices in New York and Washington, D.C.

- The Michael and Deborah Fung Breakout Room, in recognition of their $25,000 pledge to name a breakout room on the southwest side of the second floor. It will provide space for groups of two to five students. Michael Fung, a 1973 UIC CBA graduate, is a life member of the University of Illinois Alumni Association and was a member of the CBA Business Advisory Council from 1997 to 2006. He was inducted into the Alumni Leadership Academy in 2003 and became a Presidents Council member in 1997. He is currently senior vice president, chief audit executive at Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. He was instrumental in helping to create and fund the successful Wal-Mart Emerging Scholars Program.

- The Craig and Carol Levin Breakout Room, in recognition of their $25,000 to name a breakout room on the southwest side of the third floor, providing space for groups of two to five students. Craig Levin is a 1978 CBA alumnus, a member of the CBA BAC, and also a member of the Accounting Advisory Committee. He is currently managing director at RSM McGladrey, Inc.

- The James B. Flanagan Breakout Room, in recognition of his $25,000 pledge to name a breakout room on the southwest side of the third floor, providing space for groups of two to five students. Mr. Flanagan is owner, president, and CEO of Nuance Solutions, a leading innovative manufacturer of specialty and maintenance chemicals. He is an active member of both UIC’s Family Business Council and Business Alumni Association.

- The Stefanie Ann Lenway and Thomas Murtha Breakout Room, in recognition of their $25,000 pledge to name a breakout room on the southwest side of the third floor, providing space for groups of two to five students. Stefanie Lenway is the dean of the College of Business Administration. Tom Murtha, is a managerial studies professor at UIC.
• The Kay Schwichtenberg and Herman Baumann III Breakout Room, in recognition of a $30,000 gift to name a breakout room on the southwest side of the second floor. It will provide space for groups of two to five students. Kay Schwichtenberg is president and CEO of Central Life Sciences, a Schaumburg-based firm specializing in the development, manufacturing, and marketing of animal health and environmental products. She is a 1984 CBA MBA alum, a director of the University of Illinois Foundation board, a University of Illinois Foundation member, a member of the UIC Chancellor’s Campaign Committee, and a member of the CBA BAC. Herman Baumann III is a principal and managing director of Green Line Strategies, LLC, whose purpose is to help associations generate non-dues revenue to support their missions.

• The Family Business Council Conference Room, in recognition of a $30,000 pledge from the UIC Family Business Council and a match gift of $20,000 from an anonymous donor to name space for eight to twelve persons on the southwest side of the second floor. The Family Business Council was created in 1993 to help family businesses and other closely held companies achieve their business goals through a unique peer-support system and related educational programs that provide growth strategies for chief executives, their families, and their businesses. The Council now consists of more than 70 companies. It is a member-led and staff-run organization, with member-volunteers serving in leadership roles and on the Council’s Board of Directors.

• The Blackman Kallick LLP Room in Memory of Dan Fensin, in recognition of Blackman Kallick LLP’s pledge of $150,000 to create a learning studio for 48 students on the northwest corner of the second floor. Blackman Kallick is currently the ninth largest accounting firm in Chicago. Dan Fensin was managing partner of the company until his death in June 2008. Fensin was an active member of CBA BAC and was also on the UIC’s Family Business Council’s Board of Directors.
The Lori and Alan Crane Medium Learning Studio, in recognition of their $150,000 pledge to name classroom space for groups up to 48 students on the southwest corner of the third floor. Alan Crane founded the Crane Carton Company, a single-location manufacturer of folding cartons for major food and consumer products companies in 1961. In 2000, the company was acquired by Caraustar Industries, Inc. He is a member of UIC’s Family Business Council and serves on the CBA BAC. Mr. Crane was inducted into the Chicago Area Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame in 2001.

The Kayhan International Learning Studio, in recognition of Kayhan International Limited’s pledge of $150,000 in in-kind donations to name classroom space for up to 48 students on the southwest corner of the second floor. Kayhan International is a multi-service organization specializing in adaptable design, contract furniture, installation, relocation, and refurbishment of office furniture in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Three Motorola Student Collaboration Hub(s), in recognition of Motorola’s $300,000 gift to name areas on the southeast corners of the first, second, and third floors. Each breakout area will enable 20 to 30 students to work in teams and network, both of which are critical to business education. Motorola has been a tremendous corporate partner to the University of Illinois donating more than $1.8 million to different initiatives.

The Board action recommended in this item complies in all material respects with applicable State and federal laws, University of Illinois Statutes, The General Rules Concerning University Organization and Procedure, and Board of Trustees policies and directives.

The President of the University concurs.
