ESTABLISH THE MASTER OF LAWS IN TAX LAW, UIC JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL, CHICAGO

Action: Establish the Master of Laws in Tax Law, UIC John Marshall Law School

Funding: No New Funding Required

The Chancellor, University of Illinois at Chicago, and Vice President, University of Illinois with the advice of the Chicago Senate and UIC John Marshall Law School recommends the establishment of the Master of Laws in Tax Law.

The Master of Laws (LLM) in Tax Law prepares practicing attorneys to address all major areas of taxation. The LLM degree builds on the general legal education provided by the Juris Doctor (JD) degree, and gives students the opportunity to study within a specialized field in much greater depth. Applicants must have a JD from an accredited institution in the United States or an equivalent degree from an institution outside the U.S.

The degree requires 30 hours, including 14 hours of required courses in advanced federal income tax; civil and criminal tax procedure; corporate taxation; partnership taxation; tax/employee benefits research; wealth transfer taxation; and 16 hours of electives. Students must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.50/4.00.

The degree can be completed full- or part-time, and is offered as an on-campus program. In Fall 2019, an estimated 10 students (new and continuing) will be enrolled.

The Board action recommended in this item complies in all material respect with applicable State and federal laws, University of Illinois Statutes, The General Rules Concerning University Organization and Procedure, and Board of Trustees policies and directives.

The Executive Vice President and Vice President for Academic Affairs concurs with this recommendation. The University Senates Conference has indicated that no further Senate jurisdiction is involved.

The President of the University recommends approval. This action is subject to further review and approval by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.
