SP.21.04 Proposed Revision to the Constitution, Article VI, Section 7

BACKGROUND
Currently, the Presiding Officer may not vote except to decide a tie vote. This proposal clarifies that, to maintain a position of impartiality, the Presiding Officer may not make or second motions, participate in debate, or vote on any matter except in the event of a tie. The Presiding Officer would retain the ability to decide a tie vote regardless of the Presiding Officer’s voting or nonvoting status.

RECOMMENDATION
The Senate Committee on University Statutes and Senate Procedures recommends the approval of the following revisions to the Constitution. Text to be deleted is struck through and text to be added is underlined. Adoption of amendments to the Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the Senate at a second reading.

REVISION TO THE CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE VI, SECTION 7
Section 7. The Presiding Officer may not vote on any matter before the Senate except in the event of a tie vote to decide the question even though the Presiding Officer would not otherwise be entitled to vote. The Presiding Officer may not make or second motions, participate in debate, or vote on any matter, except in the event of a tie. In this event, the Presiding Officer may cast the deciding vote, even if the Presiding Officer is not a voting member of the Senate.
