The Chicago Technology Park Research Center was constructed for the University by the Capital Development Board to serve as rental space for biotechnology firms in the early stages of their development. The term of the proposed lease would extend from the date of execution by both parties through June 30, 2009, at a nominal rental of $10 per year, renewable for a single term of twelve months at the sole discretion of the University and upon receipt of IMDC's request to renew at least ninety days prior to the expiration of the initial term. The IMDC, through CTPC, uses the Chicago Technology Park Research Center for the promotion and economic development of the Chicago Technology Park by leasing space in the Center to technology companies. The provisions of the new lease include regular reporting to the Vice Chancellor for Research on IMDC's use of the Chicago Technology Park Research Center, and stipulations regarding maintenance of the property in good condition.
