W. Brooke Elliott, Associate Professor of Accountancy and Roedgers Fellow in Accountancy and Professor Ken Perry Faculty Fellow, is a rising star in her field. She has been recognized as an outstanding undergraduate and graduate instructor and produces research that has not only been recognized as a significant contribution to her academy but also has been cited in several recent popular press articles.
Madhu Viswanathan, Professor of Business Administration and Diane and Steven N. Miller Endowed Professor, was awarded the Bharat Gaurav (India Pride) in 2010, a distinction shared with humanitarians like Mother Teresa and B. D. Jatti, former vice president of India. He is an inspiring teacher, mentor, and colleague.
Jeffrey Brown, Professor of Finance and William G. Karnes Professor of Finance and Director of Center for Business & Public Policy, is a current University Scholar who has been at the forefront of the pension debate in Illinois as an expert in published research, policy documents as well as public commentary in his Forbes Blog.
