Mr. Estrada asked Ms. Jami M. Ms. Painter explained that the recommendation proposes to amend Article 4, Section 1 and would increase bereavement or funeral leave from three weeks to five weeks and parental leave from two weeks to six weeks. Mr. Estrada asked if this reflects best practice among peers, and Ms. Painter said that this change would align the University more closely with its peers in the Big Ten. She said the University would rank fourth for parental leave and second for bereavement or funeral leave.

Appoint Vice President for Economic Development and Innovation
Mr. Estrada then asked President Killeen to discuss the recommendation to appoint Dr. Joseph T. Walsh Jr. as vice president for economic development and innovation.

President Killeen stated that Dr. Walsh has served in this role on an interim basis since May 16, 2020, and he described Dr. Walsh’s education, background, and experience. He highlighted some of Dr. Walsh’s work while serving in this role, noting that he was awarded the Presidential Award and Medallion for his work to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 with testing made available through Shield T3 and Shield Illinois.

Mr. Edwards recalled meeting Dr. Walsh before he assumed this role and said that he embraced the mission of public higher education and the University System.
